

not my circus

On the first of April (actually the second cos Roe fell asleep), 4 Penpoll Road invited the finest of April's fools to celebrate the culture and aesthetic of jesters, clowns, harlequins, freaks, and circus-goers all.

With clashing colours and grotesque silhouettes, the ring of the circus would realise our desire for unbounded revelry and debauchery.

It definitely had nothing to do with Roe's recent purchase of a hideous jester costume from the Globe's wardrobe sale.

Despite an initial false start (RIP Popo) the much anticipated event took place on 23 August 2025 with an unprecedented commitment to the theme from all attendees.
